

Bryan Garner's
ADVANCED LEGAL WRITING AND EDITING SEMINAR

This popular seminar focuses on analytical and persuasive writing, with most examples coming from actual memos and briefs. The day concentrates on five major skills that good legal writers must develop:

- Frame issues that get the judge's attention and state the case in 90 seconds
- Achieve a lean style that makes your prose stand out from most legal writing
- Smooth the transitions between sentences and paragraphs
- Quote authority most effectively
- Get your projects down on paper most efficiently

To practice what you're learning, you will work on several short but challenging exercises throughout the day.
